A. Discrimination

B. Discriminatory Harassment

Harassment on the basis of any protected characteristic is prohibited. Under this Policy, prohibited discriminatory harassment is verbal or physical conduct that is offensive to or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of a protected class or characteristic, and that: (i) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment; (ii) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or (iii) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Individuals also may file complaints of retaliation with the federal or state enforcement agencies (EEOC or New York State Division of Human Rights.)

A. Reporting Procedures

Preventing harassment is everyone's responsibility. If an employee, intern, volunteer, or non-employee who witnesses or is subjected to a situation which he/she believes constitutes discriminatory harassment in violation of this Policy, UCCRC recommends that the person confront the harasser directly and advise the harasser that his/her behavior is not welcomed and will not be tolerated.

If an employee, intern, volunteer or non-employee who witnesses or is subjected to a situation which he/she believes constitutes discrimination or discriminatory harassment, he/she should file a complaint with the UCCRC CEO as set forth below. Anyone who witnesses or becomes aware of potential instances of discrimination or harassment should also report such behavior to the Personnel Officer.

- Personnel Officer: UCCRC CEO
- In the event that the UCCRC CEO is the subject of the complaint, complaints are to be made to the UCCRC Chair

Although encouraged, note that neither this Policy nor state or federal law requires that an individual tell an alleged harasser to stop his/her actions. Failure to do so does not preclude the individual from filing a complaint of discriminatory harassment. Individuals should feel free to keep written records of any actions which may constitute harassment, including time, date, location, names of others involved, witnesses (if any), and who said or did what to whom.

Complaints may be made verbally or in writing. If made verbally, the complaint must be reduced to writing by the individual to whom it was reported. The written report must be given to the Personnel Officer. A form for submission of a written complaint is attached to this Policy, and all employees, interns, volunteers, and non-employees conducting business in the workplace are encouraged to use this complaint form. Individuals who are reporting discrimination or harassment on behalf of other employees, interns, volunteers or non-employees should use the complaint form and note that it is submitted on another person's behalf.

B. Employee Responsibilities

All employees, interns and volunteers are responsible for refraining from discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation in the workplace. Anyone who witnesses discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation may notify the person responsible that their behavior is inappropriate, and in any and all events, should notify the Personnel Officer.

C. Supervisory Responsibilities

All managerial and supervisory personnel of the UCCRC shall be responsible for enforcing this Policy and shall have particular responsibility for ensuring that the work environment under their supervision is free from discrimination, discriminatory harassment, and retaliation. Failure of a manager or supervisor to comply with this responsibility may result in disciplinary action.

All managerial and supervisory personnel who receive complaints of, observe directly, or otherwise become aware of or suspect that discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation is occurring, will be responsible for immediately forwarding such complaints, in writing, to the Personnel Officer.

Supervisors and managers will be subject to discipline (or other remedial or appropriate action) for failing to report suspected discriminatory harassment or otherwise knowingly allowing the harassment to continue. Supervisors and managers will also be subjected to discipline (or other remedial or appropriate action) if found to have engaged in discrimination, discriminatory harassment, or retaliation.

D. Employer Responsibilities

UCCRC will conduct periodic mandatory training on the issues surrounding discrimination, discriminatory harassment, its effects and its appearances, and the role and responsibility of employees and managerial/supervisory personnel in preventing incidents of discrimination and harassment.

UCCRC will also distribute this Policy to all employees, interns and volunteers, and ensure that it is distributed to new employees as they are hired.

V. INVESTIGATION AND RESPONSE PROCEDURES

Discrimination and discriminatory harassment complaints will be investigated. The Personnel Officer and/or their designee(s) will conduct a prompt and thorough investigation commencing immediately and completed as soon as possible. The investigation will be confidential to the greatest extent possible.

Any employee, volunteer, intern or non-employee may be required to cooperate as needed in an investigation of suspected discriminatory harassment. As further set forth herein, UCCRC will not tolerate retaliation against those who file complaints, support another's complaint, or participate in the investigation of a complaint.

The nature and extent of an investigation may vary on a case by case basis dependent upon the circumstances and extent of the allegations. Generally, investigations should be conducted in accordance with the following steps:

- Upon receipt of complaint, the Personnel Officer or their designee will conduct an immediate review of the allegations, and take interim actions, as appropriate. If the complaint is oral, encourage the individual to complete the "Complaint Form" in writing. If he or she refuses, prepare a Complaint Form or other write up of the complaint based on the oral reporting.
- If documents, emails or phone records are relevant to the allegations, take steps to obtain and preserve them.
- Request and review all relevant documents, including all electronic communications.
- Interview all parties involved, including any relevant witnesses.
- Create (at a minimum) written documentation of the investigation (such as a letter, memo or email), which contains the following:
 - A list of all documents reviewed, along with a detailed summary of relevant documents;
 - A list of names of those interviewed, along with a detailed summary of their statements;
 - A timeline of events;
 - A summary of prior relevant incidents, reported or unreported; and
 - Recommendation(s) for the final resolution of the complaint, together with any recommendations for corrective or remedial actions to be taken.
- Keep the written documentation and associated documents in the employer's records.

Once the investigation is completed, the Personnel Officer or their designee will make a Final Determination as to whether the Policy has been violated.

The Personnel Officer or their designee shall promptly notify the complainant of the Final Determination, and also inform the complainant of their right to file a complaint or charge with the DHR or EEOC, or in an appropriate court.

If a complaint of discriminatory harassment, other harassment, or retaliation is determined to be founded, UCCRC will take disciplinary and/or corrective action in accordance with law and/or an applicable collective bargaining agreement. The Personnel Officer will be responsible for overseeing the implementation of any corrective or remedial actions.

If disciplinary charges are filed against an employee on the grounds that UCCRC has determined the employee is guilty of discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation, the accused employee may exercise his/her rights through the disciplinary procedure provided for in his/her collective bargaining agreement, or state law, if applicable.

VI. FALSE REPORTS

Reporting of a false complaint is a serious act. In the event it is found that an individual bringing the complaint has knowingly made false allegations, UCCRC may take appropriate remedial action and/or disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of applicable collective bargaining agreement and/or state law.
